

Figure S2: Two graphs illustrating the definition of optimal dilutions of positive sera for cross-inhibition experiments. Each line represents the decline in OD value for a single serum with increased dilution. The dashed circles outline the first dilution demonstrating a clear downward slope, away from a plateau phase. A: Ara h 7.0201 (n=6). B: Ara h 6 (n=7)